

Survey

We are Neil Ernst (University of Victoria) and Tim Menzies (NC State), writing to request your participation in a research project. As the author of <PAPER NAME>, we would be grateful if you could help us to understand your re-use of research artifacts, by completing an online survey. The survey should take about 5 minutes; All data will be anonymized and stored securely.

We will openly publish the generalized results so everyone can benefit from them, but we will anonymize everything before doing so. Please note that you are not obligated to participate in the survey or respond to this email. If at some point during the survey you want to stop, you are free to do so without any negative consequences. Please review details of the ethics protocol for this research at URL. By filling in and submitting this survey you are providing your implied consent to participate in the study.
